HOW TO CURE CONSUMPTION.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest principles of common sense teach this and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them prematurely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, at complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act: the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded idea of the past. Dr. SCHENK'S medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the lands a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these new celebrated remedies for consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of the disorder will be found in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills in the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. SCHENCK in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines will cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entire by beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an active healthy condition. It is for that cure this formidable disease. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of these organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, and the digestive organs, make good and rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. SCHENCK'S remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and excrete—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs Doctor SCHENCK'S medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite—promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system and more especially those parts which are diseased If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a patient feel hungry, if the deceased person cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain in flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the sure attendants on consumption. But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good. They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, after all, nothing like facts which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck's relies. Nearly all who have taken his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr. SCHENCK personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his office, No 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Philada., every Saturday, from 9 A. M. until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5.

THE PASSING CLOUD.

BY REQUEST,

O cloud, so beautiful and fleet,
Passing where fierce suns burn and beat,
O'er heights untrod by human feet!

Chameleon cloud, of its hue,
As changeful as a drop of dew,
How many shapes in moments few.

A car, a globe, a golden gloom,
How many forms thou dost assume?
A mountain, pyramid, or tomb.

So many shapes beneath the sun,
So many dies that fusing run,
And beauty still in every one.

Tinged with the hue the rainbows cast
On snow-peaks, where their image fast
Fades down before the scowling blast.

Such golden light the young moon threw
Upon the still drops of the dew,
What time the night-wind fresher blew.

Such lustre water-lillies throw
Upon the brook that lies below,
Lipping their blossoms with its flow.

'Twould make a brain-sick painter pine
To win a hue to match with thine,
To make his memory's mantle shine.

In such a cloud the angels seek
The hermit on the granite peak,
So pale, so humble, and so meek.

Such cloud when Jesus, long ere day,
Had sought the mountain top to pray,
A halo round him seemed to play.

Address of the Republican Congressional Committee.

To the Republicans of the United States:

The Executive and Legislative Departments of the National Government, and two-thirds of the State Governments, have been committed to your keeping. Such power carries with it grave responsibilities. The people, as is their right, will hold you to a strict accountability for the exercise of this great trust. Elections are soon to be held for the National House of Representatives. These elections will determine the political complexion of the popular branch of Congress. They will, too, determine the political character of several State Governments. And these results will be accepted as the verdict of the people upon the ideas, principles and politics of the Republican party, and upon the measures and character of the National Administration. To these responsibilities, and to the gravity of these issues, your thoughtful consideration is invoked. In the present juncture it behooves the Republican party not to forget its origin, nor its history.—Amid the difficulties that beset it, and the responsibilities and labors, which the needs of the country in the new and untried condition of affairs imposes, it should remember that it was born of the nation's necessities, and thus far it has grandly met the exigencies for which it was formed.—Having passed triumphantly through three great eras of history, it is now summoned to enter upon its fourth. Gathering, therefore, inspiration from past success, it should grapple hopefully and with unshrinking confidence with the duties of the present and near future.

ORIGIN OF THE PARTY.

Recurring to their origin, Republicans will remember, when the land was the theatre of a stern and irrepressible conflict between the demons of slavery and estate and the spirit of liberty and equality, when the slave party held great insecrets and powerful organizations in its grasp, and ruled the nation with imporial sway, that the founders of the party instructed by passing events, with convictions deepened and zeal quickened by the teachings of history and holy writ, and inspired by the deathless words of the patriots, statesmen and heroes of our earlier time, rose to the exigencies of the hour, opposed the haughty ambitions, the maddening passions, the cruel prejudices and the disorganizing theories of the dominating majority, and, although long overborne by numbers, still struggled on, amid jeers, insults, mobs, blows and assassinations, till under the lead of Abraham Lincoln, they achieved success and grasped the sceptre of political power.

ITS SECOND ERA.

Entering upon its second era, appalling responsibilities at once arose. The slave masters, in the pride and arrogance of power, instantly plunged the nation into the fire and blood of civil war. But the Republican party rose with the crisis. It raised money in unstinted measure, organized vast armies, created powerful navies, fought bloody battles, crushed the most gigantic rebellion of all recorded history and saved the nation's life. It was then, amid the clash of arms, that the Republican party saw that slavery was the relentless and unappeasable foe of the country, was the inspiration, the heart and soul of that civil war, and that its death would be the annihilation of the rebellion, the unity of the Republic and the development of free institutions. Against cowardly fears, selfish instincts, and unreasoning passions and prejudices it pronounced the doom of that hideous and horrid system of human bondage, tho' it was upheld by the aggregated interests of three thousand millions of dollars, hedged about by the accumulated passions and prejudices, prides and ambitions of seven generations, and entrenched within the social, political and ecclesiastical organizations and affiliations of life. By a series of executive and legislative acts it broke the chains and lifted from the depths of childhood, up to the summits of manhood four and a half millions of hapless bondsmen, and stood before the nation with their riven fetters in one hand and their title deeds to freedom in the other.

THE THIRD ERA.

The war ended, the rebellion subdued, the bondmen emancipated, the Republican party entered upon the era of its eventful history. Though conquered by arms, the rebels did not accept the just, human, and generous ideas of the victors, nor did they return to their proper allegiance and loyality to the government, but still bemoaning the "lost cause" they remained unsubdued in will and unrepentant in spirit and purpose. Though made free, the bondmen were homeless, without property, without employment, subject to the cruel laws against free people of color, which had always disgraced Southern legislation, and in the midst of a people exasperated by defeat and maddened by their loss of power still longer to hold and oppress. Property was swept away, industry disorganized, society disintegrated and States were without lawful government.

THE WORK OF RECONSTRUCTION.

Upon the Republican party developed the task of reconstruction. To its intrinsic difficulties were added the intense hostility of the rebels, the lingering prejudices long engendered by the slave system, the timid counsels of conversatism and the apostacy of the Executive. Great interests and powerful combinations sought to so reconstruct the South as to place the power in the hands of the late slave holding class, and leave the helpless freedmen in the abject condition of practical serfdom. Seldom in history has there been imposed upon any body of men a work of greater magnitude or difficulty. The Republicans might have shrunk from and avoided it. They were sorely tempted to do so. But they resisted the temptation of official power and patronage, and threats of Executive dictation and all other adverse influences, and with sublime fidelity and courage addressed themselves to the herculean task. To aid in recognizing disordered industries, caring for, protecting and instructing the emancipated bondmen in the new duties of their changed condition, the Republicans established the Freedmen's Bureau, which, by the wise expenditure of a few millions of dollars, did an incalculable work for order, peace and the rehabilitation of Southern society. To reconstruct rebellious States on the solid basis of equal rights, they gave suffrage to the freedmen in the reconstruction measures. To secure citizenship and civil rights to a wronged and hated race, they proposed and adopted the Fourteenth Amendment, and enacted a bill of Civil Rights. To establish by irrepressible guaranties equal political rights and privileges, they adopted the Fifteenth Amendment, and as a crowning act of freedom they provided by law for the enforcement of these amendments thus newly enshrined within the Constitution. Thus the Republicans, against the sternest opposition, against misrepresentation, against appalling obstacles, have struggled on until the rebel States, reconstructed on the basis of impartial liberty, have been restored, and the sublime doctrines of the Declaration of Independence made assured and practical realities. In the progress of the ages it has been given to few, in any form or by any modes, to achieve a work so vast, so grand, so beneficent, so sure to be recorded by history, and applauded and remembered by coming generations.

ITS FOURTH ERA.

Having achieved this grand work, having passed through these three eras of its history, the Republican party, entering on its fourth era, was summoned to deal with questions relating to the national debt, the currency finances and taxation, to reforms in the military, naval and Indian service, and whatever remaining burdens and legacies were left by the war. Concerning these questions there are apparent diversities of interests and real differences of opinion. The solutions of some of them are embarrassed by grave difficulties. They require time as well as financial skill and practical statesmanship for their adjustment.—Differences of opinions on matters so recondite and complex, in an organization embracing so many men of large *intelligence, trained to habits of inde*pendent thought, expression and modest conviction, are inevitable. They are indeed to be expected and desired, for from such freedom of discussion truth is elicited and proper modes of action are deduced. The men, therefore, who stood so firmly while in a minority, amid the denunciation, arrogance and scorn of power; the men who met the stern exigencies of civil war with such heroic courage, who assailed the slave power and extirpated the slave system; the men who grappled so successfully with the perplexing and pregnant issues of reconstruction, lifted helpless freedmen up to citizenship, exalted them to the heights of civil and political rights and privileges, and made the nation free in fact as well as in name, should not shrink from the less momentous and less embarrassing question now before them.

WORK TO BE ACCOMPLISHED.

Patriotism, principle, the continued existence, reputation and renown of the Republican party, and due sense of self respect and pride of character demand that Republicans now, as in the past, should have faith in this capacity to carry forward to completion reforms so auspiciously begun. It came into being as an organization of reform and should ever be ready to accept the living issues of the hour and march abreast with the spirit of the age. Unaided it has fought the battles of reform with constancy and courage. Nor in the work still before it can hope for aid from those who still cling to the traditions of the past, pride themselves on their conservatism, and who, during the conflicts of the past twenty years, have resisted all reform, and mourned over every effete and hateful abuse as it fell. If there are Republicans who are weary of the ascendency of a party which has achieved such crowning victories, who are tired of the responsibilities of power and would relinquish it to other hands, they should remember that there are none worthy to accept it.—For surely they cannot fail to see that the Democratic party, by its policy during the closing years of its power, and by its blind and unrelenting opposition to reformatory measures while out of power, even now, as if smitten by judicial blindness, refusing to accept the Constitutional Amendments as fixed and final, has demonstrated its utter incapacity for such a trust.

President Grant's Administration.

Accustomed to success even against fearful odds, and underrating, perhaps, the intrinsic difficulties of the pending issues, many Republicans looked to Gen. Grant's administration with high raised expectations. Of course they have been impatient and not always satisfied with results. But while these expectations have not been fully realized in the action of either the President or of Congress, much has been achieved, enough, at any rate, to satisfy them that the difficult problems will be wrought out and the hoped for results accomplished. Gen. Grant came into office pledged to maintain inviolate the public faith, reduce the public debt, diminish taxation, appreciate the currency, reform abuses in the civil and military service, and maintain order in the State lately in rebellion. By the combined action of the President, the heads of Departments, Congress, and the General of the Army, many abuses have been corrected any many reforms inaugurated. Gen. Grant's Indian policy is bringing forth evidences of its justice, its humanity, and its wisdom. The firm, just and generous policy of the Administration toward the States lately in rebellion has brought much of order and security, and crimes have largely diminished. In the interests of economy, the services of thousands of employees, both civil and military, have been dispensed with. The currency has been appreciated in value by tens and scores of millions of dollars, and the national credit has been largely strengthened.

The Revenues.

Without any increase in the articles subject to taxation or in the rate of taxation, revenues of the fiscal year ending 30th of June, 1870, were nearly $400,000,000 against less than $371,000,000 for the year ending 30th of June, 1869, showing a gain of nearly $38,000,000. On the other hand, the expenses of the fiscal year, 1870 were less, than those of 1869 by more than $29,000,000, thus showing an increased revenue and saving in expenditures of more than $67,000,000 in the first fiscal year of Gen. Grant's administration. In the last sixteen months of Mr. Johnson's administration the receipts from customs and internal revenue were less than $372,000,000. During the first sixteen months of General Grant's administration they were more than $469,000,000, showing an increase of nearly $97,000,000. Republicans will remember that during the last two years of Mr. Johnson's administration he removed Republicans appointed by Mr. Lincoln and others who adhered to the principles of the Republican party, and appointed Democrats where he could do so.—The character of the appointments, and the demoralizing influence which his opinions and conduct had upon them, were seen in the loss of scores of millions of dollars of revenue in those years. The large gain in the collection is mainly due to the determined and avowed purpose of General Grant to secure an honest administration of the revenue laws, and the appointment of Republicans to office earnestly devoted to his economical policy.

Reduction of Taxation.

During the recent session of Congress taxes have been reduced more than $75,000,000. The taxes have been removed from transportation by canals and railroads, from sales by dealers and manufacturers. The income tax has been reduced to two and a half per cent. on all incomes above $2,000, and it is to expire at the end of two years. The tax on tea has been reduced from twenty-five to fifteen cents per pound; on coffee from five to three cents, and the tax on sugar and molasses has been reduced in the aggregate twelve millions of dollars per annum. By this reduction of taxation, the industries of the people and the necessaries of life have been relieved of burdens amounting to millions. The Funding bill is an important financial measure, which contemplates the saving of interest upon the public debt by the exchange of outstanding six per cent bonds for those of a lower rate of interest, to the amount of $26, 500,000 a year. While a reduction in taxes transfers the burden of the debt from one year to another, a reduction in the rate of interest is an actual saving to the country, not only for the present generation, but for all time.—And yet these important and beneficial financial measures, intended to ease the public burdens, received little countenance and support from the Democratic party, whose responsibilities for the war, its losses, its expenditures, its debts, and its taxation, are so fearfully large.

The Glorious Record of the Party.

Not faultless, but high, noble, and glorious is the record of the Republican party. History will note it, and the world will gratefully remember it. In the light of this brief review of its achievements, for patriotism, liberty, justice, and humanity, should not Republicans, one all, cling to their grand organization, rectify its mistakes, correct its errors, and keep it true to its past traditions and in harmony with the enlightened and progressive spirit of the age? So doing, may they not perpetuate their power until beneficent principles shall become the accepted policy of the nation?

HENRY WILSON,
Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee.

"SOUND ON THE GOOSE."—A pious old negro woman was once caught by her master stealing a goose; and the next Sunday she partook of the communion, after which her master accosted her as follows:

"Why, Hannah, I saw you to-day at the communion table!"

"Yes, tank de Lord, massa, I was allowed to be dere wid de rest ob His family."

"But, Hannah, I was surprised to see you there!" he said. "How is it about the goose?"

She looked a little surprised, as if she didn't comprehend the cause of his wonder; but soon catching the meaning, exclaimed:

"Why, sar, do you tink I'se a goin' to let an old goose stand between me and my Maker?"

☞"I am going to preach the gospel," said Tommy.

"You will never know enough," said his brother.

"Then I will be good, and show them what God likes us to be," said Tommy, humbly.

Yes, indeed, we can all do that. It is the best preaching in the world.

Speak Kindly.

Much of the unhappiness of this world arises from giving utterance to hasty and unkind words. Many a sorrowful hour and sleepless night have been spent, brooding over some harsh or angry word, which has dropped from the lips in a moment of unguarded passion. How much pain we would save ourselves and others, if we would guard all our ways and actions Kind words, spoken in the right time and place, do more to heal the wounded spirit than all the gold which this world can give. They cost nothing, while they enrich the heart, and scatter sunshine all around, winning many a true and faithful friend.

A little word in kindness spoken,
A smile, perhaps a tear,
"Has often healed a heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere."

How indelibly does a little act of kindness, performed at the right moment, impress itself upon the mind.

Many years ago a little child stopped to admire the flowers in a beautiful garden. It was an orphan and already had felt the hard and bitter pangs of an orphan's lot. The owner of the garden noticed the child and spoke kindly to him.

"Do you love flowers?" said he.

"Oh, yes. We used to have beautiful flowers in our garden."

The man gathered some and handed them to the boy, saying as he did so, "here is a nice little bunch for you." The child took the flowers in a manner that plainly told his gratitude. It was an act of spontaneous kindness, and scarcely thought of again. Years went by, and through toil and poverty the child grew to manhood. It is said from ordeals like this sometimes come our best men. So it proved in in the case of this orphan. We now find him respected and beloved by all that know him. Through all these years he has not forgotten the man who so long ago spoke the kind word. When he again met him, it was not in the beautiful garden, cultivating the fragrant flowers, but in the cold and dismal abode of poverty. Then his was the hand stretched forth to help the white haired old man in his hour of need. Thus the little act of kindness was doubly repaid, bringing to our minds the words of the beautiful hymn.

Printers and Paradoxes.

A printer is the most curious being living. He may have a bank, coins, and not be worth a cent; have small caps, and have neither wife nor children. Others may run fast, but he gets swifter by setting fast. He may be making impressions without offending, and be telling the truth; while others cannot stand while they set, he can set standing, and do both at the same time; have to use furniture, and yet have no dwelling; may make and put away pi, and never see a pie, much less eat it during his life; be a human being and a rat at the same time; may press a good deal and not ask a favor; may handle a shooting iron and know nothing about a cannon, gun or pistol; he may move the lever that moves the world, and be as far from moving the globe as a hog under a mole hill; spread sheets without being a housewife, he may lay his forms on a bed, and yet be obliged to sleep on the floor; he may use a dagger without shedding blood, and from the earth he may handle stars; he may be of a rolling disposition, and yet never desire to travel; he may have a sheep's foot, and not be deformed; never without a case, and yet know nothing of law or physic; be always correcting errors, and be growing worse every day; have embraces, without having the arms of a girl thrown around him; have his form locked up, and at the same time be free from jail, watch-house or other confinement; his office may have a hell in it, and not be a bad place after all; he might be plagued by the devil, and be a Christian of the best kind; and what is stranger still, be honest or dishonest, rich or poor, drunk or sober, industrious or lazy, he always stands up to his business.

Three things principally determine the quality of a man—the leading object which he proposed to himself in life, the manner in which he sets about accomplishing it, and the effect which success or failure has upon him.

The woman who undertook to scour the wood has abandoned the job, owing to the high prince of soap. The last that was heard of her she was skimming the sea.

Boswell complained to Johnson that the noise of the company the day before made his head ache. "No, sir, it was not the noise that made your head ache; it was the sense we put in it.

☞Politics throughout the county seems to be very tame, but we feel assured that our party will do its duty at the proper time.

Denver, Colrado, advices say that the city is filling up with roughs and desperadoes to such an extent that there is little safety of life and property. The same advices note the beating of a citizen in his yard at night, he having been called out by some of these roughs.

The "White Men's Party" convention re assembled at the Court House, on Friday last and nominated the following piece of a ticket: For Associate Judge Gen. John Williamson, Huntingdon; for County Commissioner, Harry Cook, Carbon; for Poor Director, Jacob Goodman, Brady; for Auditor,

This piece of a ticket we suppose, will be hitched on to the other piece of a ticket nominated by the Democrats. Harry Cook, we believe was the only Republican nominated.

The Party and the Ticket.

The ticket at our mast head is the Republican ticket—nominated by the Republican party, and will be supported by the party. The Democratic ticket will be supported by Democrats—the "White Men's" by Democrats generally and a few Republicans. This being the "situation" we think best to let well enough alone. Last year we tried our best to keep the Republican party to the ticket then nominated—we failed. This year we think it will stick without the making of the ususual campaign noise and confusion.

A few Facts in Figures.

The vote for Congress in Cambria county in 1864' was—

Barker	Johnston
1888	2688

Johnston's majority, 800
In 1866 the vote stood—

Morrell	Johnston
2791	3146

Johnston's majority, 355.
In 1868 the vote was—

Morrell	Linton
2917	3512

Lintcn's majority, 595

In 1864 Barker had all the advantages arising from the war, the democracy that year having placed itself on the peace at any price platform, disgusting many soldiers. But for this he would have been beaten more than one thousand. In 1866 and in 1868 the war was over, Johnsonism was rampant, especially in 1868, many soldiers had gone back on their record and again voted with their worst enemies during the war, and yet Mr. Morrell has never been beaten 600 in Cambria. Some of the men who are opposing him now opposed him before, some openly, others covertly. If therefore there is any man in the district who can afford to lose votes and still be elected, that man is D. J. Morrell.

THE WAR IN EUROPE

The Prussians within ten miles of Paris.

The news during the past week has been most important and exciting.—After three days terrific fighting before Sedan, Marshal MacMahon's army was driven into the town, and being completely environed by the Prussian army under the Crown Prince and Prince Charles, was forced to surrender. This took place on Friday Sept. 2d. The Emperor Napoleon surrendered the same day. The surrender was unconditional. The whole of MacMahon's army became prisoners of war, with their arms, ammunition, horses and accoutrements. The French army is completely broken up. Marshal MacMahon was wounded in one of the battles, and is reported to have since died.

Louis Napoleon after delivering himself up as a prisoner to King William, was sent to have Williamsoffe, a royal palace in Hesse Cassel. His suite accompany him. He is treated with great consideration by his captors, the Queen of Prussia even sending her chief cook to minister to his appetite. The Empress Eugine has left Paris to join her husband. The Prince Imperial is in England, in care of his Governor and Tutors. The French Emperor is said to have invested in English American securities to an amount that will yield him an annual revenue to half a million of dollars. He appears to take his misfortune philosophically.

There is great rejoicing throughout Germany, and among the Germans in the United States, over the success of the Prussian arms.

The news of the surrender of the Emperor, and of MacMahon's army, fell upon Paris like a thunderbolt. Intense excitement prevailed. Gen. Trochu was made Dictator and Governor of Paris. The Emperor Napoleon was deposed by a unanimous vote of the Corps Legislatif. A Provisional Government was formed, and a Republic proclaimed. It was resolved to defend Paris to the last extremity, and the city has been preparing all week for a siege.

The Prussian army, after the victory at Sedan, set out at once to march Paris. They were within ten miles of the French Capital at last accounts, and are by this time before the gates of the city. It is believed that the French will be compelled to capitulate, and to make the best terms of peace they can. The Prussians it is said will claim that the French povinces of Alsace and Loraine be annexed to the German Nation, and that Luxemburg, Metz, and one or two additional frontier fortresses, be transferred to Prussia. It is further announced that Prussia will not submit to the intervention of arbitrament of any of the neutral powers, but means to consent to peace only on her own terms.—Whether the French people will be allowed to establish a Republic remains to be seen.

Marshal Bazaine, with his army is still hemmed in at Metz, and will have to surrender also. Bombardment of Strasburg has been stopped, after doing great damage to the town. The famous Strasburg Cathedral is said to be much injured.

The French people are over joyed at the downfall of Napoleon, and the powerfull of a Republic being established. The nation appears to be unanimous for self-government. The intervention of neutral powers is asked to bring about a peace. It is reported that the U. S. Government has formally acknowledged, through Minister Washburne, at Paris, the new French Republic

It is announced that the English government and other neutral powers are about to propose terms of peace, as follows: French territory to remain inviolate, France to pay Germany five hundred millions in the coin, and the cession of the fortresses in Alsace and Lorraine, and the general disarmament of France.

If King William and Bismarck have their way, as is likely, we may expect to see one of the Orleans princes placed over France. European sovereigns can hardly afford to have a Republic in their midst, especially as Italy is also moving for a Republic. But the day of deliverance of all Europe from Kingly rule is not far distant.

Latest News!

THE PRUSSIANS REPULSED!

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The Prussian advance has halted at a point nine miles from the outer works, and works are being thrown up.

The Bavarian corps, under command of the Grand Duke, made simulaneous assaults upon Toul and Montmedy, on Saturday, and were repulsed at both places with great slaughter. At Toul the battle lasted for some hours, and the loss of the Bavarine is estimated at 10,000.

The news that Russia, Austria and the United States have moved for an armistice, is confirmed, and the advance of the Prussians on Paris has been stopped in consequence.

The news is very cheering here among the people, and the impression prevails that peace will be made in a short time.

TAKEN IN.—The Miners' Journal tells of a certain young clerk in an office in Pottsville, whose shrewdness seldom allows deception to get the better of him receiving a letter from New York, informing him, in a strictly confidential way, of course, that if he would send on five dollars—barely enough to pay the expense of looking into the matter a little—he would tell him of parties who owed him considerable sums of money. The five dollars was forwarded as requested, more out of curiosity than otherwise. A few days ago he received a receipt for his "V" from the ingenious swindler, of which the following is the substance: "Every person who defrauds you out of five dollars owes you that amount. Talley me. Yours, truely." Very likely the tally has been made, and the young clerk acknowledges the five dollars' worth of wisdom, bought with so little trouble. Young men beware of New York swindlers. They will take your money out of your pockets before your eyes if they get a chance, and do it in such a way that you cannot take offense at it.

SECOND ANNUAL

AGRICULTURAL FAIR

OF THE

ALTOONA PARK ASSOCIATION,

TO BE HELD AT

Altoona, Pa.,

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

October 4tu, 5th 6th and 7th, '70.

$4,500,00 In Premiums!

Competion open to all parts of the State!

The Association takes pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the very liberal premiums offered this year. They equal those of the State Society, on similar classes. The design of this liberality is to produce friendly competition, and at the same time remunerate exhibitors and visitors.

The premiums on thoroughbred horses and cattle amount to over $800,00, and all the other classes are equally liberal. For the ladies, some $300,00 worth of silver ware has been purchased, and will be distributed as premiums for the work of their hands. These premiums range in value from $1,00 up to $15,000, and many of the articles are beautiful, and the Managers believe they will be prized much more than the same amount paid in money.

For full particulars, see premium list, published in pamphlet form, and to be hand of any of the officers or Managers.

Now buildings will be added to those already on the ground, and everything provided for the convenience of exhibitors and satisfaction of visitors.

AN INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

To the Republican voters of Huntingdon county:

I announce myself as "Independent Candidate" for Associate Judge, and ask the support of all honest and independent men who hate rings and "ring" candidates. Having stood by the Republican party from its birth up until its betrayal of the people, in the fraudulent adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment; I feel that I should have some claims upon the true men of that party.

I stand upon the Chicago platform, upon which Gen. Grant was elected; but I utterly repudiate the fraud and outrage by which the right of negroes to vote has been declared a part of the fundamental law of the land, blotting out a part of the Constitution of our own state, which an officer was sworn to support.

If elected, I will endeavor to discharge my duties faithfully, and I flatter myself that my profession in life has not unfitted me for the position, besides, it would often be found a great convenience to have an Associate Judge residing in Huntingdon.

ROSADALIS

THIS Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and thousand of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis sent for our Rosadalis Guide to Health or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. S. W. Carr, of Baltimore says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of all alterative ingredients.

Dr. For full particulars, see premium list, published in pamphlet form, and to be hand of any of the officers or Managers. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrofula and secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McKeehan, Murfreesboro' Tennessee, says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Linn, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by John Read and S. S. Smith, Huntingdon, Pa., and Druggists generally.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Sam Lawson on Courtin'.

BY HARRIET BEECHER STOWE.

"I'member I used to lead to singin" in them days, and Miry she used to sing countor so we sot putty near together in the singer's seats; and I used to think Sunday mornin's when she come to meetin' in her white dress and her red cheeks and her bonnet all tipped off with laylock that twas for all the world jest like a June sunrise to have her come into the singer's seats. Them was the days that I didn't improve my privileges, boys," said Sam, sighing deeply.

"There was times that of I'd a spoke, there's no knowin' what mighn't a happened, 'cause you see boys, I was better lookin' in them days than I be now. Now you mind, boys, when you grow up, of you get to waitin' on a nice gal, and you're 'most a mind to speak up to her, don't you go and put it off, 'cause of you do, you may live to repent it.

"Wall, you see, from the time that Bill Elderkin come and took the academy, I could see plain enough that it was time for me to hang up my fiddle. Bill he used to set in the singer's seats, too, and he would have it that he sung tenor. He no more sung tenor than a skunk blackbird, but he made b'lieve he did, jest to sit next to Miry in the singer's, and then they used to be a writin' backward and forward to each other till they tore out all the leaves of the hymn-books, an' the singin' books besides. Wal, I never thought that the house of the Lord was jest the place to go coutin' in, an' I used to get consid'able shocked at the way things went on atween 'em. Why, they'd be a writin all sermon time; an' I've seen him a lookin' at her all through the long prayer in a way that wa'n't right, considerin' they was both professors of religion. But then the fact was, old Black Hoss John was to blame for it 'cause he never let 'em have no chance at home. Ye see, old Black Hoss was sot agin Elderking 'cause he was poor. You see his mother, the old Widdah Elderkin, she was jest the poorest peakedest old body over to Sherburne, and went out to day's work, and Bill Elderkin he was all for books and larnin', and old Black Hoss John he thought it was just shiftlessness; but Miry she thought he was a genius, an' she got it sot in her mind that he was goin' to be President o' the United States, or some sich.

"Wal old Black Hoss he wa'n't none too polite to Miry's beaux in gineral, but when Elderkin came to see her he was snarlier than a saw; he hadn't a good word for him noways; an' he'd rake up the fire right aforo his face and eyes, and rattle about fastening up the windows, and tramp up to bed and call down the chamber-stairs to Miry to go to bed, an' was a sort o' aggravatin every way.

"Wal, of folks want to get a gal set on havin' a man, that's the way to go to work. Miry had a consid'able stiff will of her own, and of she didn't care about Tom Beacon before, she hated him now; and of she liked Bill Elderkin before, she was clean gone over to him now; so he took to goin' to Wednesday evening lectures, and the Friday evenin' prayermeetins', and the singin'-school, jest as regular as a clock, and so did he; and afterwards they always walked home the longest way. Fathers may jest as well let their gals be courted in the house peaceable, 'cause if they can't be courted there, they'll find places where they can be; it's jest human natur'.—Atlantic Monthly.

WALK ON!—A traveler bound to a certain village, passing by Aesop's, thus addressed him:

"Can you tell me how long it will take me to reach B——?"

"Walk on," was the laconic reply.

The traveler, not comprehending this answer, repeated his question.—Again the reply was:

"Walk on."

Disgusted with his manner the traveler did walk on, when suddenly Aesop exclaimed:

"You will reach B—— in two hours."

"And pray," retaliated the wanderer, "why did you not tell me before?"

"How could I tell you before I had seen your rate of walking?" returned Aesop.

Little and Nothing of it.

Old Johnny McGill resided, during the war, in East Tennessee. Guerrillas, representing both parties, kept it so warm in that forsaken region that it was dangerous to belong to either side. McGill had, in trying to ride both horses, gotten several boot jackings from first the rebels and then the Yankees. As all guerillas dressed alike, he made several mistakes in trying to pass for either Union or Southern, as he thought would suit the crowd. At last he was overtaken by a party whose politics he couldn't even guess at, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Sir, are you a Union man?"

"No sir," responded McGill,

"Are you a rebel then?"

"No sir, I am not a rebel either."

"Then what in the devil's name, are you?" roared the captain.

"Well, sir," hesitated McGill, "to tell the real truth, I am — nothing — and but d—d little of that!"

ADDRESS

TO THE

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED.

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE PROMPT TREATMENT.

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urine organs, or your kidneys, get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitution, but those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in these organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every form of disease humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

DISEASES OF THESE ORGANS REQUIRE THE USE OF A

DIURETIC.

COUGHS, SORE THROAT, ETC

No medicine or treatment can excel the powerful curative power of

DR. SIMMS'

WHITE PULMONIC BALSAM.

It cures with a rapidity unequalled by any other remedy offered for throat and lung diseases. It is recommended by over 2,000 persons in Wilmington, and hundreds in Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities and communities throughout the country. Mr. Pennington, of Wilmington, Illinois, writes that there is not (with a few exceptions) a family in that city who will be without it if possible to procure it. Such is its popularity wherever it is known—and this popularity arises from the fact that it universally cures all who use it. There is no case of

COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THROAT, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP,

BLOOD SPITTING, HOARSENESS, and even Pulmonary Consumption, where the system is not broken down with the wear of the disease, or pretended medicine, or inexperienced advice, that this Balsam will not cure if carefully used according to directions. We guarantee it all we represent it to, and invite a trial from the afflicted everywhere. Price 50 cts, medium size, and $1 for large size bottles. Prepared only by

HUNTINGDON, PA.

SOLDIERS' HEIRS, ATTENTION!

The act of Congress approved March 2, 1867, gives to Heirs of Soldiers who died prisoners of war,

COMMUTATION FOR RATIONS,

or the time the soldier was so held a prisoner, at the rate of twenty-five cents per day, to be paid in the following order: 1st. To the widow, if unmarried; 2d. To the children; 3d. To the parents, to both jointly if they are living, if either is dead, to the survivor; 4th. To the brothers and sisters.

The act of February 28, 1867, provides for the refunding of the $300 Commutation Money, where the same person was again drafted, and was required to enter the service or furnish a substitute.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.

The act of March 2, 1867, also makes provisions for the payment of the

$100 ADDITIONAL BOUNTY

to such soldiers as have accidentally lost their discharges

All persons having any claims under any of the above mentioned Acts, or any other kind of claim against the United States or State Governments, can have them promptly collected, by addressing the undersigned. Information and advice cheerfully given to soldiers or their friends, free of charge.
